

Media Ticket Request Policies

Spoletto Festival USA offers a limited number of tickets for media covering the Festival. Please note that tickets to some performances may be unavailable or limited. Request fulfillment is not guaranteed, and distribution is at the discretion of Festival staff.

Press credentials may be revoked if journalists are absent or routinely late to performances, taking photos/video during performances, or using mobile devices during performances. Journalists new to the Festival may be asked to complete an accreditation application. Media tickets are not available for special events or fundraisers.

TICKET REQUEST GUIDELINES:

- Advance Coverage: Journalists may request up to two complimentary tickets to associated productions; for Festival-wide previews, there is a three-performance max.
- Performance Reviews: Journalists may request up to two complimentary tickets per review. For Festival-wide reviews, ticket allocation will be at the discretion of Festival staff.
- Spoletto Festival USA does not issue Festival passes. Piccolo Spoletto media passes cannot be used for Spoletto Festival USA events.
- Tickets cannot be exchanged the day of the performance. Please be precise with all requests.

DEADLINE FOR REQUESTS: Friday, March 28.

Following this date, media tickets will be released for sale. The Festival will be in touch in April to confirm tickets.

NOTE:

Spoletto Festival USA reserves the right not to issue tickets to a journalist if they:

- Do not provide promised coverage (in current or past seasons) or proof of story termination.
- Do not meet accreditation requirements, as determined by the Festival.
- Fail to request tickets by March 28, 2025.

TICKET COLLECTION:

Tickets will not be mailed. Tickets will be held at Spoleto Festival USA's press office, or moved to Will Call before a performance. Collection may be arranged during business hours starting May 23. Please make arrangements with Lauren Van Liew: Ivanliew@spoletousa.org.